

American Red Cross Financial Assistance – December 17, 2025

The American Red Cross is here to support individuals and families who may be experiencing major roadblocks to recovery following this flood. Financial assistance is available to those whose homes sustained qualifying damage.

Damage Assessment & Outreach

- The Red Cross has conducted damage assessments in partnership with state and county officials across the impacted areas.
- They are actively reaching out to individuals whose homes have been confirmed as destroyed or severely damaged.
- For properties where they already have contact information, invitations to enroll will be sent directly via email, text message, or phone call from the American Red Cross.

How to Register

- If they do not have your contact information, please visit redcross.org/gethelp to register online.
- You may also call 1-800-RED-CROSS to provide the information needed to open a case and receive assistance.
